Make your own `Alam

💡 Cut out, colour and stick your own `Alam together.

You can use a straw
During the events of Ashura, Imam Zain al Abideen (a.s) was ill. He could not go and fight with his father Imam Hussain (a.s) as he had the important job of continuing the Imamate. Lots of people around the world have different types of abilities and skills that we might not easily recognise, but are just as important.

Use the sign language English Alphabet to reveal what is written in the message below.

Bibi Sakina/Sayeeda Ruqayyah (s.a)

Sayeeda Ruqayyah (s.a) was the youngest daughter of Imam Hussain (a.s). She was very thirsty in the hot desert of Karbala so she told her uncle Hazrat Abbas (a.s) to get her some water. Bibi Sakina (s.a) uncle was killed by Yazid’s army whilst trying to collect water for the children.

Create some poetry to recite in majlis on Bibi Sakina (s.a) and the events of Ashura.

Key words: thirsty, prison, uncle Abbas, water, Al Atash, Shaam, Baba, baby Ali Asghar
Hazrat Qasim (a.s) was the son of Imam Hasan (a.s), he represented his father and became a Shaheed on Ashura day. Hazrat Qassim described death as being "sweeter than honey".

Which bee will find its way to Karbala?
On that day of Ashura, Imam Hussain (a.s) cried out ‘is there anyone to help me?’. Till today there are many Hussainis and Zainabis around the world that get hurt because they follow the true Islam that Imam Hussain (a.s) followed.

I promise to help the followers of Imam Hussain (a.s) that are in need and hang it on your door as a reminder.
Imam Sajjad (a.s) and Sayeeda Zainab (s.a) would hold majlis and spread the message of Islam through narrating the sacrifice of Imam Hussain (a.s). They would cry and do matam/latam. This form of expression has a special name.

Fill in the following puzzle to reveal the extraordinary name.
Imam Hussain (a.s) mission to spread the true Islam of Prophet Muhammad (SAW) would not have been possible without the incredible ladies of Karbala.

The Hashamite Heroines of Karbala

Match the Hashemite Princesses’ names to the correct description.

1. Bibi Zainab (s.a)
   - She helped her older sister look after the women and children after the martyrdom of Imam Hussain (a.s).

2. Bibi Umme Kulthum (s.a)
