The respect of Hazrat Ali Akbar (a.s)

One of the greatest qualities of Hazrat Ali Akbar (a.s) was the respect he gave to his parents Imam Hussain (a.s) and Bibi Layla (s.a) and his aunt who brought him up Sayeeda Zainab (s.a).

Respect comes in many different forms, respect to Allah's SWT laws, our elders, friends, belongings and the planet.

Act out what you believe a respectful response would be in the different role play scenarios below.

1

Sibling Love

Hazrat Aun (a.s) and Hazrat Muhammad (a.s) were special brothers who loved and respected each other. They helped each other on the battlefield in Karbala and defended each other against the vicious army of Yazid (l.a).

Sometimes we find it hard to always be nice to our siblings or friends. Write a note to your sibling or friend expressing how you value and care for them.

Courage of Hazrat Qasim (a.s)

Hazrat Qasim (a.s) was extremely courageous, he was young and could have chosen not to fight in the battle of Karbala. But he especially asked his uncle Imam Hussain (a.s) if he can fight and help save the religion of Islam. Think of Hazrat Qasim (a.s) and Imam Hussain's (a.s) life and think about what makes you courageous?

Write 4 activities or actions that fall in your comfort zone in the comfort zone circle. Then write down 2 activities that made you courageous in the courage zone. Then list 2 things in the courage zone that you would like to do in the name of Hazrat Qasim (a.s).

2. Opening: Recite a verse of the Holy Quran related to your topic.

The Power of Words

Imam Zain Al-Abidin (a.s) made a powerful speech in the court of Yazid (l.a). It had such an impact that Yazid (l.a) got worried and asked for the Adhan to be recited, but many people stood up and left without praying behind Yazid (l.a).

Analyse the speech of Imam Zain Al-Abideen (a.s) and assign the correct footnotes number from the speech.

I am the son of Mecca and Mina, I am the son of Zamzam and Safa.¹

I am the son of he who raised the Black Stone in his robe, I am the son of the best one who put on the shirt and robe, I am the son of the best one who put on the shoes and walked, I am the son of the best one who did the circumambulation (tawaf) and sa'i, I am the son of the best one who did the pilgrimage and responded to Allah's call, I am the son of the one who was carried on the Buraq² through the air, I am the son of one who was taken in the night journey from Masjidul Haram to Masjid al-Aqsa, I am the son of the one³ who reached with Jibra'il [in his ascension] to the sidratul muntaha (the holiest spot in heaven),⁴ I am the son of the one who reached very close to that holy spot, I am the son of the one who prayed with the angels two cycles, I am the son of the one to whom God sent revelation. [In short,] I am the son of Muhammad Al-Mustafa.

I am the son of Ali Al-Murtaza, I am son of the one who subdued the people till they said: la ilaha illa lah, I am the son of the one who fought in defence of the Prophet with two swords and two spears, did two migrations pledged allegiance to the Prophet twice, prayed towards two qiblahs, courageously fought in Badr and Hunayn, and never ever disbelieved in Allah!

I am the son of 'the righteous one among the believers, the successor of the prophets, destroyer of the disbelievers, leader of the Muslims, light of the mujahidin, prince of the worshippers, 'crown' of those who cry [in their prayers], the most patient of those who exercise patience, the best among those who stand for prayer from the family of Taha and Yasin, the Messenger of the Lord of the universe.

I am the son of the one who was supported by Jibra'il and Mika'il, I am the son of the one who protected the sanctities of the Muslims, who fought the rebels, the deviants, and the violators, and who confronted his hateful enemies.

I am the son of the one who is most honourable among the Quraysh, and the first among believers to respond to Allah and His Messenger,⁵ the first among the foremost ones, the one who crushed the back of the rebels and destroyed the idol-worshippers; the one who was an arrow from the arrows of Allah against the hypocrites; the tongue of the wisdom of the worshippers, the helper of Allah's religion, the friend of Allah, the garden of Allah's wisdom, the vessel of Allah's knowledge... the father of the two grandsons of the Prophet, Al-Hasan and Al-Hussain, demonstrator of the extraordinary feats, destroyers of the divisions, the shooting star, the lasting light, the victorious lion of Allah – that is my grandfather, 'Ali bin Abi Talib.

I am the son of Fatema Zahra, I am the son of the chief of the women, I am the son of the pure Batul,⁶ I am the son of 'the part of the Messenger;' and I am the son of Khadija Al-Kubra.

I am the son of the person killed unjustly, the son of one whose head was severed from the back of the neck, I am the son of the one who was thirsty till the last moment, I am the son of one who was abandoned in Karbala, I am the son of the one whose blood soaked in the dust – I am the son of the one who was slaughtered in Karbala.⁷

I am the son of the one on whom the angels of the heavens cried, I am the son of the one on whom the jinn in the earth and birds in the sky wailed. I am the son of the one whose head was paraded on the spear; I am the son of the one whose family was made prisoners from Iraq to Sham.⁸

Juloos: Public Remembrance

Juloos and Mowkibs are a form of a remembrance procession and are extremely important. They inform others about the events of Karbala and are a way to be an advocate for Imam Hussain's (a.s) teachings. Ashura day is especially important to conduct a procession and show the world how you feel, the oppression you stand against and what happened on that day in 61 AH.

Write an important message that you have learnt from the events of Ashura on the below placard, cut it out, stick it to a board and use it on your next juloos. mowkib or procession. You can even hang it as a poster on your front window.

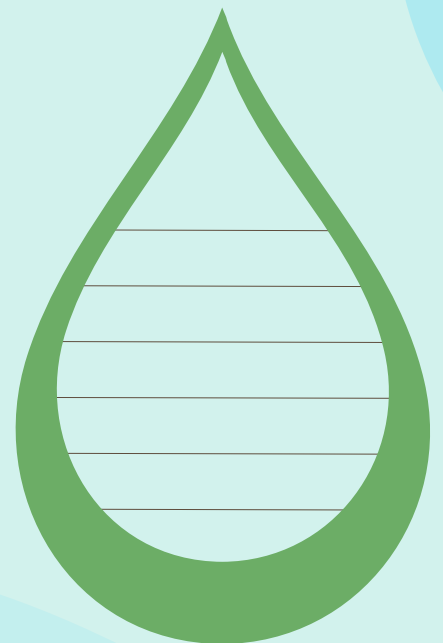

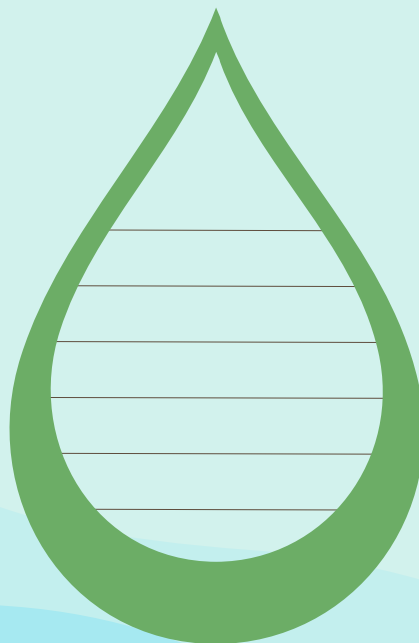

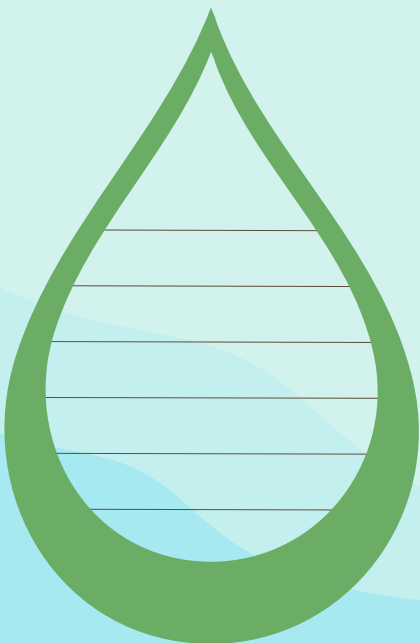

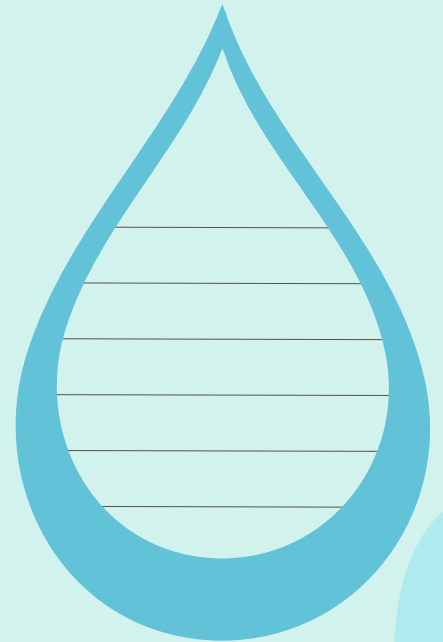

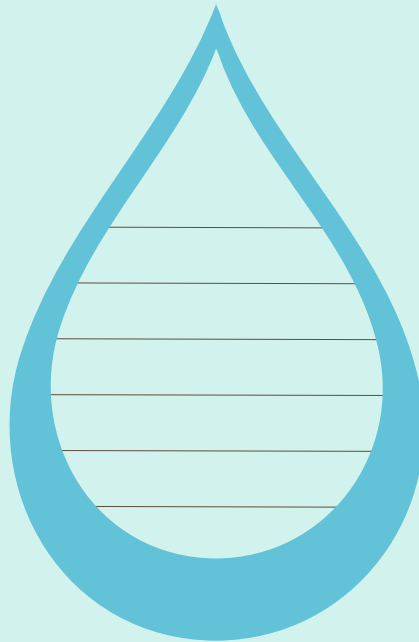

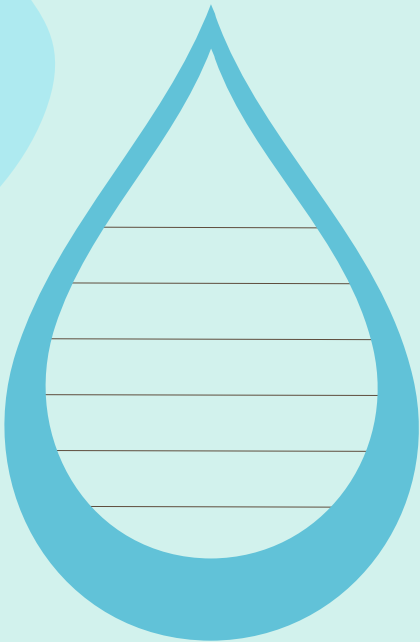

Water is my World

Think about water, it is truly amazing. We use it so much and cannot live without it, yet we often take it for granted. Did you know around 884 million people around the world do not have safe water to drink?

Write what you think are the top 3 uses of water below on the blue droplets. And think of the top 3 uses of how to save water and use it wisely in the green droplets.

The shaheeds of Karbala and the extraordinary ladies that travelled to Shaam in chains helped to spread the true message of Islam.

A friend like Habib (r.a)

Hazrat Habib ibn Mazaher (r.a) was a supportive friend to Imam Hussain (a.s). When Imam (a.s) sent him a letter in Kufa, Hazrat Habib (r.a) left straightaway to help the Imam (a.s) in Karbala.

Being a good friend and choosing a compatible friend is a life skill. Friendship is when you fit together, even though you are pieces from a different puzzle.

Cut out, write and select which puzzle pieces you want as a friend.
